PRESS RELEASE

LOGO DESIGN COMPETITION

On the 11th of April 2016, the Ministry of National Security launched a nationwide "Logo Design Competition" tour. The team visited all the tertiary level institutions in the country of Belize. This was the beginning of the sensitization of the expected functions of the Belize Crime Observatory.

Entries were received from the following institutions: Ecumenical Junior College, Centro Escolar Mexico Junior College, The University of Belize, Wesley Junior College and Saint John's College Junior College. A total of eleven (11) entries were submitted.

A committee reviewed the entries and as a result the winner of the Logo Design Competition is Mr. Gabriel Nah, a student of Saint John's College Junior College in Belize City. Mr. Nah will be rewarded his prize at the launching of the Belize Crime Observatory expected to take place in August 2016.
